August 2025

Revd. Canon Miriam writes:

Dear Friends,

August is a time for holidays (if you have children at school) and rest. It is that point in the summer when the pace of life seems to slow a little and we can enjoy the sunny days and light evenings. It is a time for us to relax and reflect maybe on our faith journey and relationship with God. In our busyness, it is often so easy to get out of the rhythm of spending time with God each day in prayer, reading or just 'being' in his presence. I hope and pray that over the coming weeks you will be able to re-discover the presence, the joy and the love of God in your life.

It was lovely to welcome so many people to our Cake and Conversation event back in May. The purpose of this event was to reflect on our life together as a church community and how we live and share the love and presence of God with the people of Croxley Green. It is clear from the conversations that we had that God has richly blessed us in all that we seek to do in his name. This is evidenced by the number of new people who have joined us and the comments of people who come to the various social events that we hold. Thank you so much for being a part of this community and for all that you do.

Over the last few months, the Ministry Team, Pastoral and Evangelism Group and the PCC have been reflecting on the comments that were shared at this event and prayerfully exploring with God what we should do to enable the further growth, development and witness of our church community. An area that seems to come up in these prayerful times is the need for us as a community to deepen our faith and understanding of God's call so that we can be more effective in bringing others to faith in God. With this in mind, we are planning to explore some of life's difficult questions, and we hope that you will come along and join the debate/discussion.

Entitled 6 Big Questions, over 6 weeks starting on 1st October at 7.30pm, we will explore the following;

In the Beginning...Was it God or was it Science? (1st October)

Why do bad things happen? (8th October)

What happens when we die? (15th October)

Does prayer work? (22nd October)

Why be a Christian? (29th October)

Why go to church? (12th November)

In addition to the above, we are also planning a series of sermons looking at Journeys of Faith of well-known people in the Bible. Recognising these were ordinary people with the same challenges, problems, fears and dubious character traits will hopefully help us to understand that God calls and equips all sorts of people to follow him. These sermons will take place during September and October, and we will be looking at the stories of Peter, Rahab, Ruth, Amos, Moses, Judas, the Woman at the Well and Paul. We would love to hear your feedback about these sermons, so do speak to those who have preached them about the characters and whether their journey of faith has inspired you.

On November 18th, in the evening, we will be hosting the Deanery Confirmation Service here at All Saints'. If you would like to know more about being confirmed please speak to me. We are running a confirmation class for young people too starting in September, again speak to me If this is something you would like to know more about.

Our Harvest Festival Service will take place on 21st September at 9.45am. Our harvest gifts will be given to the Rickmansworth Food Bank which has a branch here in Croxley Green. Look out for information in my weekly letters about what foods they would like to receive.

With my love and prayers for a restful, revitalising and relaxing
August

...A last minute call...

On Friday morning (27th June), my mum said Miriam had emailed and asked if we wanted to be acolytes at the service in St Albans Cathedral when Tolu was being priested.

I was so excited at the idea once my mum explained what we would be doing. She warned me that lots of other people might ask to do it so I went off to school praying God would let me do it.

I raced out of school and asked my mum if we had got the job and she said 'yes'. I was so happy I wanted to scream.

On the day, my mum was worried because it was so hot and we had to wear robes so I put on t-shirt and shorts with my school shoes. It looked funny as an outfit but it soon didn't matter as I put my black cassock on. I then got to wear an amice - I had never seen one before. It was tucked in my cassock around my neck so it gave me a nice collar. Over the top I had an alb and then a rope tied round my waist. I felt pretty warm and I hadn't even picked up my lit candle yet. I felt really nervous as we lined up but the good thing about being an acolyte is you copy the other person so I just had to keep an eye on what my mum did mostly.

I had the best view of Tolu at the front. She was smiling so much it made us smile.

When we walked out I felt so proud of myself. I had never done this before but it was so good serving God like this and I will never forget this day. I told everyone how much I loved it and I asked if I could do it again when my mum is ordained a deacon next year and they said "of course you can!" I can't wait!

Sunday 29th June

On Sunday 29th June, Revd. Tolu led the Communion Service at All Saints' for the first time after the ceremony at St Albans the previous day, when she was ordained. It was a joyous occasion that was shared with a Church full of friends and family.

The service was followed by a celebration lunch in the Hall where there was a fantastic spread of food and, of course, cake!

Thank you to everyone who helped with the food, setting up, washing up and clearing away. Thank you also to Kelly for baking the cake.

A Message from Revd. Tolu

Dear Friends

I am grateful for your warm and affirming welcome to our family when we joined 7 months ago. You have been gracious, kind, and generous in your love and support for us as we settled into life at All Saints. It has been wonderful to become one of you – you know us by name and know which coffee and cake helps to kick start the day.

You extended your love to our family and friends at my ordination to the priesthood and my first communion service. I want to express how grateful I am that you opened your hearts to them, and they experienced the love and joy you are known for. We appreciate your generosity with the food and the money. Thank you so very much. The money will go towards buying clerical wear from Butler and Butler Clergy wear – there is a Petertide sale just for those newbie priests!

With love and prayers

Tolu

Miscellaneous observations on life

You know you're a bad driver when Siri says, "In 400 feet, pull over, stop and let me out."

Golf balls are like eggs. They are both white, sold by the dozen, and a week later you have to go out and buy more.

You know you're getting older when you begin to realize that your parents were right, after all.

You can learn many things from children. Like, how much patience you have.

Hi! I'm Buzz the Bee ...

... and I'm buzzing around All Saints' Church garden during August. See if you can find my Bee Trail!

You can

- ☐ Learn some facts about bees
- ☐ Find out more about how Jesus wants us to be
- ☐ Do a fun activity - if you wish

I hope you enjoy yourself - whatever your age

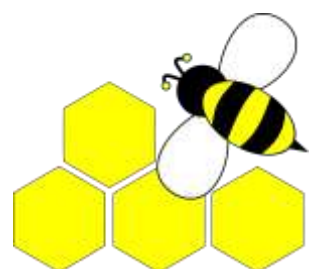

A Bee Prayer

Thank you God for all the bees for all our food from cheese to peas.
Help us to look after bees with care,
and other insects in this world we share.
Amen

Bees are essential to our natural world. Honey bees in particular are super-important pollinators for flowers, fruits and vegetables. This means that they help other plants grow! Bees transfer pollen between the male and female parts, allowing plants to grow seeds and fruit.

Here are some thoughts from 'The Friends of the Earth' that show us how important bees are to us and help us to think about adding lots of bee friendly plants to our gardens that offer both pollen and nectar e.g. Some popular choices include Lavender, Borage, Salvia, sunflowers and various herbs like rosemary and thyme. When selecting plants, consider those with open, accessible flowers as they are easier for bees to access.

‘What did you have for breakfast today? Jam on toast? Grilled tomatoes with your fry-up? Maybe fruit juice or a coffee? It’s tempting to think bees just provide us with honey – but in fact they’re behind much of the food we eat, including most fruit and vegetables.

From pub signs and town names, from Shakespeare to JK Rowling, from beehive hair-dos to phrases like “having a bee in your bonnet” – the bee has been a star for centuries. Roman philosopher Pliny referred to honey as “the sweat of the heavens and the saliva of the stars”, while Medieval author and poet Chaucer was one of the first to use the phrase “busy as bees”. The bumblebee has always been a source of special delight because of its portly features and furry bottom. Mr Bumble in Oliver Twist and Dumbledore (a Cornish word for bumblebee) in Harry Potter suit their names well.

Bees are crucial to our economy – without them it would cost UK farmers £1.8 billion a year to pollinate their crops. In a world without bees, our food would cost a lot more to produce and our economy would suffer. More bee information can be found on several websites including Friends of the Earth and Bee Keepers Association

If you would like to know more facts about bees, take a walk around the Bee Trail in the Church garden, then pop into Church and read the prayers that the First Sunday children and their mums and dads wrote on bee shapes during last month’s service. Maybe write your own prayer on a bee.

Do you know any more sayings that contain ‘bees’? Please write them down on the list in the Church or send them to the church magazine at magazine@croxleygreenallsaints.org

Happy bee-friendly summer.

All in the month of August from Parish Pump

It was 1,700 years ago, on 25th August 325, that the First Council of Nicaea ended with the adoption of the Nicene Creed. It summarised the Christian faith and established the doctrine of the Holy Trinity.

250 years ago, on 5th August 1775, that the first Europeans entered San Francisco Bay.

Spanish explorer Juan de Ayala and his crew on the ship San Carlos explored and mapped the bay.

150 years ago, on 4th August 1875, that Hans Christian Andersen, Danish writer, died. Best known for his fairy tales, such as The Emperor's New Clothes, The Little Mermaid, The Princess and the Pea, The Snow Queen, The Ugly Duckling, and many more.

100 years ago, on 5th August 1925, that the Welsh nationalist political party Plaid Cymru was founded. Today it holds four of the 32 Welsh seats in the UK Parliament, 12 of the 60 seats in the Senedd, and 202 of the 1,231 principal local authority councillors.

90 years ago, on 21st August 1935, that John Hartley, British tennis player, died. He was the only clergyman ever to win Wimbledon, and in fact he was world number 1 player in both 1879 and 1880 – winning Wimbledon both years.

75 years ago, on 15th August 1950, that Princess Anne, the Princess Royal, was born.

65 years ago, on 6th August 1960, that the Twist became a national sensation in the US, and triggered one of the biggest dance crazes, when singer Chubby Checker performed the song on the show American Bandstand.

60 years ago, on 6th August 1960, that the Beatles' Album HELP! was released.

Also 50 years ago, on 20th August 1975, that NASA launched its Viking 1 space probe on a mission to Mars. It became the first spacecraft to land successfully on Mars, and to complete its mission.

30 years ago, on 24th August 1995, that Microsoft released both Windows 95 operating systems and also Microsoft Office 95.

The Meadow

I walked across this meadow
Bee and birdsong filled the air
Snakehead Fritillaries and cowslips growing there
What worth have gold and silver
If your eyes have never seen
The beauty of God's creation
In this meadow of emerald green
It filled my heart with pleasure
As I wandered through the grass
A day I shall remember
One that will truly last
So if you want priceless treasures
Just take a walk and find
A flower filled sunny meadow
And leave all your cares behind
Just stand there for a moment
And breath the honeyed air
For this is God's creation
And what treasures he has planted there.

Bishops' Bulletin: Harvest Appeal 2025

As we give thanks for all that God provides, we also celebrate the incredible impact we can make when churches, chaplaincies and schools across our diocese act together in prayer, generosity and compassion. Over the past 16 years, our Harvest Appeals have raised more than £1 million, bringing lasting hope to communities around the world.

This year, we invite you to help build on that legacy.

Rewrite Their Future supports Mission Direct's work to increase access to education, especially in some of the world's most under-resourced communities. In Zambia and Uganda alone, Mission Direct will help over 2,945 children this year, of which 1,170 will be benefitting from new classrooms –and over the next 20 years, 23,400 children will gain access to education that would otherwise be out of reach.

Mission Direct's education initiatives typically include building schools, helping to attract and retain teachers in rural schools, enhancing academic performance and health due to nutrition programmes and enabling girls to continue in education after puberty by providing better washing and sanitation facilities.

Your donation helps to continue this vital work – supporting a range of activities that enable Mission Direct to help children to Rewrite Their Future. Whether they are laying bricks, funding feeding programmes, organising teacher training or providing advocacy, policy and resource acquisition support – these all contribute to more children being able to go to school.

We commend this appeal to you with deep gratitude for all you already do. Let's stand together once again, so more children can go to school, unlock their potential and thrive.

With every blessing,

+Richard, Bishop of Bedford and +Jane, Bishop of Hertford

Sermon Luke 10:1-20 on the 6th July

Dear all,

When I preach on the passage above last month, I encouraged everyone to consider the answers to three questions (see below). I asked the children there to write down their answers and then for them to ask the adults for theirs.

Thank you so much for your engagement. We had some wonderful conversations over coffee about being witnesses and sharing the love of God. I have pulled together all the answers you shared below.

I wonder, for those of you who did not get a chance to answer, if they would be your responses? What would you have said?

For those reading who do not come to Church and have not yet accepted the love of Jesus in your life, I wonder if anything here appeals and might encourage you to come and join us living God's love.

Do you go to Church?

- to worship and feel closer to God
 - to sing
- to learn how to be a better person
- because God loves me and I want to praise him
 - to be part of a community
 - to see my church family
 - to meet new friends
 - because I love God
- to hear more about God and learn more about who he is

What is so good about Jesus?

- he is the light of the world
 - he is my friend
 - he hears my prayers
- he died to save us and forgives us
- he loves everyone all the time no matter what
 - he forgive us
 - his goodness
 - he comforts me
- he is always with me everywhere I am never alone

What is good about being a Christian?

- awareness of the Holy Spirit within us
 - makes me happy
- community to help each other shared values I agree with
 - Jesus is with me in good times and bad
- there is nothing that is not good – try it!
 - shared beliefs
 - family and friends

In or out?

After cleaning his young patient's teeth, the dentist accompanied the five-year-old boy to the reception area, only to see him struggle with the oak door. "It's heavy, isn't it?" asked the dentist.

"Yes," he said. "Is that so children can't escape?"

Fish and chips

Some tourists touring the north of England stopped to visit a Priory. The Prior gave them a tour of the buildings, ending in the kitchen, where one monk was making fish and chips. One tourist said brightly: "You must be the fish friar," to which the monk gravely replied, "No, I am the chip monk."
